Numb. 4068

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 2. to Monday November 6. 1704.

St. James's, November 2. The following Addreſs from the Borough of Newport, in the Iſle of Wight, was preſented by William Stephens Elq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes of the Town of Newport, in the Iſle of Wight.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

TO permit Your Loyal Corporation of Newport in the Iſle of Wight, with Hearts full of Duty and Joy, to congratulate the Glorious Succeſſes with which it hath pleaſed the Divine Providence to bleſs Your Majeſty's Arms by Land and Sea; by both which Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom in the Choice and Appointment of ſuch renowned and skilful Commanders, is as much the Praiſe and Admiration of the World, as their Proweſs and Atchievements are.

May Your Majeſty in after-days, by the ſame Bleſſing from above, never want Succeſſes equal, or (if it may be) ſuperior, to thoſe that are paſt; and by a long Auſpicious Reign not only ſecure the Peace and Happineſs of Your own Subjects, but alſo the general Repoſe and Tranquility of Europe.

The following Addreſs has alſo been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes, of Your ancient Borough of Bridgewater, in the County of Somerſet.

THE many Advantages in general which all Europe enjoys, by the late Succeſſes of Your Majeſty's Arms both by Land and Sea, and the great Honours which redound to the Engliſh Nation, and the Reformed Religion in particular, have obliged us, amongſt the reſt of Your Dutiful Subjects, to preſent our unfeigned Praiſes to Almighty God, and our grateful Addreſſes to Your Majeſty, on this happy and illuſtrious Occaſion.

We cannot ſufficiently applaud the Wiſdom of Your Majeſty in contriving our Happineſs, and the Courage and Conduct of Your Renowned Generals in executing Your wiſe Commands.

Nor have we any reaſon to doubt, but that ſuch Victories as theſe will reduce the exorbitant Power of France, and keep the Ballance of Europe in thoſe Sacred Hands, where Providence hath ſo fitly placed it: And we hope Your Majeſty will never deſiſt from a juſt War, till You have fully ſecured to Your People a laſting and honourable Peace.

In the mean time we aſſure Your Majeſty of our Loyalty to Your Sacred Perſon and Government; and it is our conſtant Prayer, That You may continue, as You have begun, to be the Ornament of the Reformation, and the Example of Piety, the Scourge of Tyrants, and the Protectoreſs of the Liberties of Europe.

Given under our Common Seal this 16th day of October, Anno Dom. 1704.

The following Addreſs from the County of Salop was preſented by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Bradford, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand-Jury, at their General Quarter Seſſions held at Shrewsbury for the County of Salop, upon Tueſday the 3d day of October, Anno Domini 1704.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do moſt humbly and thankfully acknowledge Your Majeſty's great Care in the Adminiſtration of impartial Juſtice unto us and all Your Subjects, and Your moſt gracious Protection of us and our Liberties, Civil and Religious: And we do moſt heartily congratulate the happy Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Forces, with thoſe of Your Allies, under the prudent and valiant Conduct of Your well choſen General the Duke of Marlborough, humbly imploring the Divine Goodneſs to continue his Bleſſings upon Your Majeſty, and to proſper Your Armies with Victory, until the Liberties of of Europe be ſecured from Temporal and Spiritual Uſurpers; and after a long and happy Reign over us and our Poſterity, that the Almighty Monarch will beſtow upon Your Majeſty an everlaſting Kingdom of Glory.

The following Addreſs from the County of Huntingdon was preſented by John Dryden Eſq; one of the Knights of the ſhire, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Manchester, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Freeholders, of the County of Huntingdon.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do moſt humble of Your Majeſty's Arms over the French and Bavarians, which, next to the Bleſſing of God upon Your Majeſty's prudent Councils, muſt always be acknowledged to be owing to the ſteddy Conduct and Courage of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough.

We cannot enough expreſs the deep Senſe we have of ſo great a Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms, and the Liberties of Europe, which ſeemed otherwiſe to have been brought under the greateſt of Difficulties.

We beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we ſhall never be wanting in any thing that may conduce to the further Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Forces both by Sea and Land.

May Your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous, that Your Majeſty may be the happy Inſtrument of ſettling the Ballance of Europe, and ſecuring to Poſterity the Proteſtant Succeſſion in theſe Nations, as eſtabliſhed by Law.

The following Addreſs from the County of Norfolk, was preſented by Sir Jacob Aſtley Bar. one of the Knights of the Shire, and other Members of Parliament for that County, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Somerſet.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen and Grand-Jury, at the General Quarter Seſſions Aſſembled for the County of Norfolk, the 3d of October, 1704.

Madam,

WE beg Leave to declare our ſelves truly ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under Your Majeſty's Wiſe and Auſpicious Government; and, with the reſt of Your good Subjects, heartily rejoyce at Your Unparallel'd Succeſs over Your and Europe's Enemies, under the Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough: 'Tis by You, Madam, that the Engliſh Honour is raiſed to a height unknown to any of Your Royal Predeceſſors; Your Arms are ſo Proſperous, to ſuch as have the Happineſs of being Your Allies, that from You they have Deliverance, at the Moment of utmoſt Deſpair; Your Fleets ride Victorious where ever Your Subjects or Confederates have any Trade that want Your Protection; and both are ſo terrible to Your Enemies, that a Great Monarch, ſwelled with the Title of Invincible, evacuates whole Countries, fleeing before Your Victorious Armies, and now muſt quit his Pretences to Univerſal Empire; glad if You permit him to enjoy his own. This Heaven bleſſes Your great Care of the Proteſtant Succeſſion and Intereſt, and Your Princely Munificence to the Poor Clergy of that Branch of it, that have been always Loyal out of Principle, and Obedient to the Crown by Inclination as well as Duty.

May Your Majeſty's Glories continue and increaſe, till You give a laſting Peace to Europe; and then may Your Sacred Life be ſpun out to the utmoſt Length for a Bleſſing to the Proteſtant Churches, and Your moſt Loyal, Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, who both in Lives and Fortunes are reſolved to exert themſelves to the utmoſt in Your Majeſty's Service.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Lyn-Regis was preſented by Robert Walpole Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced his Grace the Duke of Somerſet.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Lyn-Regis in Norfolk.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

TO admit us (amongſt the great number of Your Loyal Subjects) with unfeigned Hearts, to congratulate the Glorious Succeſs of Your Arms, in the Victory obtained by Your Succeſsful General, John Duke of Marlborough, over the French and Bavarians near Hochſtet in Germany: A Defeat ſo entire, that hardly Foreign or Engliſh Hiſtory can parallel; ſo ſeaſonable, that the Safety of a whole Empire was the Conſequence of it, and upon the diſtant Danube, where the Engliſh Arms never triumph'd before. And whilſt Awe and Reverence makes us approach leiſurely to Your Majeſty's Throne, every day ſtill produces new Trophies; the Sea as well as the Land, Africa as well as Europe, muſt loudly proclaim Your Majeſty is every where invincible.

Theſe are Bleſſings juſtly due to Your Majeſty's Piety and Courage; who ſo ſteadily have purſued the Example of Your Glorious Predeceſſor, that from his early Years, and almoſt a private Station, was always the chief Oppoſer of the Torrent of France, Popery and Slavery; and whoſe Memory will ever be valuable in all true Engliſh Hearts, were it for nothing elſe, yet for leaving us the Eſtabliſhment of a Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Perſon of Your Sacred Majeſty. Notwithſtanding which (by the Treachery of Your faithleſs Enemies) Your Majeſty, upon Your Acceſſion, found the dreadful Powers of France and Spain united, who jointly have, in their Turns, puſhed hard for the Weſtern Monarchy. This would have ſhaken any Courage leſs firm than Your own; who whilſt all Europe lay gaſping, waiting the Reſult of Your Councils, ſtretched out Your powerful Arm to ſupport the then tottering Frame of
